The Woodlands Township: Abbey Miller distributed The Woodlands Township schedule of events:

- Abby reminded that she can coordinate curb painting block parties neighborhoods
- Fire tour schedule will be provided next month
- Woodlands Express is available for $13 round trip to the Rodeo
- The Woodlands won National Night Out National Award; 2024 theme is 'Set It, Don't Forget It, Get Alarmed' to remind people to set alarms, locks homes and vehicles and keep fire alarms up to date

Old / Recurring Business:

Parks & Recreation Advisory Council – Tina provided an update:

- Parks and Rec is still researching utilization of the new Central Park
- Falconwing park is in progress and need to reach out for the creation of plaque and bench
- Reforestation projects have started and Tina will follow up on schedule for Trace Creek
- Large culdesacs will now be maintained quarterly
- App is not currently working so any issues should be called in
- 50th year celebration is October 19

RDRC Update – Mike Vesely provided an update on recent requests. These include approvals for house colors of painted gray and white. Additionally, a resident painted their fence blue within the Woodlands Reserve; however, it was unanimously rejected by the RDRC. The RDRC committee referred the issue to the DSC for their ruling as they are the entity that establishes these standards.

Woodlands Magazine – Will add Taste of the Village save the date and will include info on the new members of the board.

ISVA Social Media – 828 Facebook followers (+10); 88 Instagram followers (-1).

- July 4th Parade – Villages are planning to participate by walking in the parade and ISVA can have reps

Jim Nelson Memorial – Mike Ranc will reach out to Michelle Betcher (Projects - Parks & Rec)

New Business:

- Scholarship Committee – Tina to head the committee this year; Submission deadline will be Monday March 18.
- Mike Saucier to submit the 2024 Service Agreement; Bylaws to be updated prior to the meeting with a deadline for amendments by 5 March
- There was discussion regarding steps/process to pursue a pathway and crosswalk leading out of the Woodlands Reserve neighborhood. Tina advised that the issue had been discussed years ago and an issue with the developer not willing to contribute to the cost. In addition, the neighborhood of Trace Creek had raised concerns on the removal of trees and increased traffic noise following the encroachment of the Gosling expansion. Christina made a statement that the safety and well being of our village residents take precedence over all other preferences and partialities.

Adjourn: Aimee made the motion to adjourn the meeting 8:44 and Krupa seconded. The meeting adjourned.

NEXT MEETING: Next official meeting is March 12th at the Woodlands Township
